SATURDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION OCT. 23, 1948

Devotional service was conducted by Elder A. L. Hart. Elder Hart began service by lining hymn No. 178, Come ye that loveth the Lord . Elder Hart read the morning lesson from Romans 8; 1:11. Prayer was offered by Dec. G. T. Taylor. Second hymn subject: I will trust in the Lord. Bishop Davis made some remarks and announce the house in order for business.

It was proposed and agreed that we shall hear the minutes of the previous day session.

Saturday morning preaching memorial service was conducted by Bishop E. F. Johnson. 1st hymn Father I stretch my hand to thee, lined by Elder W. M. Grantham alternate who also read the Scripture lesson the 91st Psalms, prayer was by Deacon Moye. Then Elder Grantham sang one of his favorites. I want to know if Jesus will welcome me there. Then he presented the speaker of the hour General Bishop E. F. Johnson, Dover, N. C.

Deacon E. C. Burnette of Wade, N. C. sang a spiritual. "Thro the years I keep on toiling." Then Bishop Johnson arose and told us of the passing of Elder Boykins, Ed. Ingram and R. B. Brown.

Then Bishop Johnson used for a text Hebrews 11:16. He preached a wonderful sermon, as he told us that every living man had something that makes him believe there is a God. If you have lived the life, kept the faith you could say as job; Thought of the skin worms destroy my body, yet in my flesh shall I see God. Just looking for a city. For in my fathers house are many mansions. Elder W. M. Grantham reminded us that Elder R. B. Brown of Zebulon, N. C. had passed since our last Assembly. He was one that has kept the faith, forsaken by friends, even isolated from his own family, but told his pastor and family he had Jesus on board.

Elder W. M. Grantham made very encouraging remarks concerning his life and suffering, as he was his pastor for sometime. Our souls were made to rejoice as these two men spoke to us.

The finance solicitors came forward and raised the offering. Public collection $2.00. Speaker $12.00. Total $24.00.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Mitchell Hayes, pastor of the Popular Spring Church in the section of Sandersville, Georgia for the Goldsboro Christian Institute. The General Bishop, E. F. Johnson then delivered his Annual Address. It was proposed and agreed that the report coming from the Educational committee be received and adopted.

AIM AND PLEA OF THE CHURCH

We, the Disciples of Christ in eastern North Carolina and Virginia, wishing to be in complete accord and agreement on the doctrine of the Church, set forth the following which has been the slogan of the Church for more than one hundred years:

General aim of the Church—Restoration of the New Testament teaching and practice.

Plea of the Church—No creed but Christ; no book but the Bible; no name but the Divine.

Where the Book speaks we speak; where the Book is silent we are silent. In essentials unity; in non-essentials liberty; in all things charity.

Scripture lesson read by Elder W. M. Hopson, Phil. 4:, prayer by General Bishop E. F. Johnson. Chant by the choir, "Just tell Him all." Spirituall "He'll understand and say well done."

Then Bishop Davis arose and presented the speaker in person of Elder W. M. Grantham, after a solo by Miss Johnson of Selma, N. C. He used for a text St. John, 3: 15. Subject: Making a life and not a living. The speaker brought at us many illustrations of the men who had spent, and lost their lives trying to show men and women the difference in making a life, and a living. Making a life causes you to sacrifice your talent, time and means. Your heart must bleed and tears will flow from your eyes, but yet you look up say "I thank you Lord".

He reminded us of the pioneers who blazed the trail that we are now traveling. Our hearts were made to burn. Bishop Davis extended the gospel invitation as Deacon Samuel Singletary of Howell's Chapel, Selma, N. C. sang a solo. "I'm a Pilgrim." Elders C. Barnes, P. R. Newborn, Deacon Amos Artis raised the offering. Total $26.02.

Total raised at assembly $5672.00.

Thus ends the 67th mile post of the G. & R. District of the Disciple of Christ.
